

PORT ARTHUR HISTORIC SITE

Unique, emotional, fascinating and unforgettable

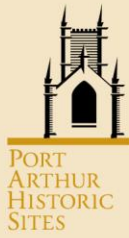

Discover the award winning World Heritage listed Port Arthur Historic Site to connect with Australia's convict past, and the history, that has helped shaped the nation. For more than forty years until its closure in 1877, Port Arthur was a secondary punishment station and was a military and industrial centre, encompassing mining, farming, timber cutting, boat building and many other trades.

Visitors can meet the rogues and the righteous, villains and victors, saints and lost souls of Port Arthur through a variety of interpretive experiences, including guided tours, harbour cruise, audio iPod tour, multimedia presentations, restored houses, museum displays, as well as a high-tech audio installation at the dockyard. The all new visitor centre showcases the state-of-the-art Port Arthur Gallery where we have introduced 52 new character stories for visitors to engage with history, connect with the people of Port Arthur and view rare collection items.

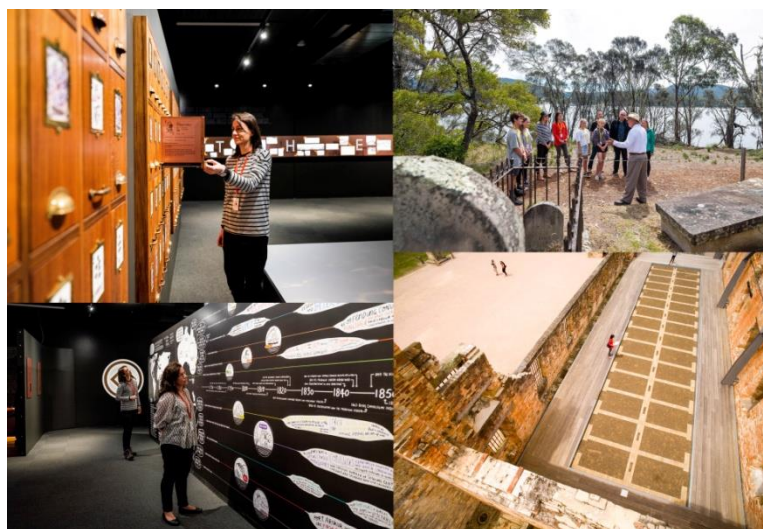

The Port Arthur Historic Site offers different dining options allowing visitors to choose from casual café alfresco dining to a la carte restaurant service in 1830 with stunning sweeping views of the site. Not to be missed are the magnificent gardens, convict ruins and historic buildings and short walking trails through the natural bush that surrounds the Site.

As there is a lot to see and do at Port Arthur, site entry passes are valid for two consecutive days, and include a 45 minute guided introductory walking tour and a 25 minute harbour cruise. Additional experiences include the Isle of the Dead Cemetery Tour and the Point Puer Boys' Prison Tour. For those brave enough, the ever popular Ghost Tours begin after dark.
