

FAMILY ACTIVITIES

27 December – 26 January
12pm – 1:30pm
& 2pm – 3pm

Visit the Education Centre at the Accountant's House and try your hand at traditional crafts and design. Children can make their own Port Arthur peg doll, design and make a convict love token or temporary convict tattoo, or discover the art of letter writing and wax sealing.

Activities offered in two sessions each day, 12pm – 1:30pm and 2pm – 3pm.

Check the timetable outside the Education Centre for today's activities.

WEIRD AND WONDERFUL PORT ARTHUR

12 – 24 January
1:45pm – 4:30pm
Sunday – Friday

This summer, for the first time ever, we are inviting kids to take part in a special 'behind the scenes' program to discover some of the most fascinating stories of Port Arthur, from the past and the present!

From cannibal convicts to cursed bricks, extinct emus to escapee elks, the Port Arthur Historic Site has endless weird and wonderful tales to tell. Discover these stories and more through displays, activities and daily presentations at 1:45pm at the Police Station.
